

Get Your Ducks in a Row!

Come join us for a night of information and inspiration!

Public Forum and Information Panel Discussions are proactive ways to help members of the community become more prepared and comfortable with key decisions regarding their family and their future.

Date: February 18th
Time: 2:30 - 3:30 pm
Place: Canton Senior Center
40 Dyer Avenue, Canton

Panel

Attorney Neil Kraner - Practicing Estate Planning, Elder Law for 20 years in the Farmington Valley.

Sandee Fleet - Representing the services provided by the Farmington Valley Visiting Nurse Association.

Regina Sanchez, - Professional Organizer providing Organizational Tips for Rightsizing your home as well as a brief discussion on "Leaving a Shade Tree or Empty Dish!"

Nicole Paquette (CFSP, CPC Licensed Funeral Director, Embalmer and Certified Preplanning Consultant with Carmon Community Funeral Homes) - explanation of the benefits of planning for your funeral or cremation, the three different types of cremation services and how to shelter assets in prepaid funeral contracts for Medicaid/Title 19 purposes.

Phil Rischall, Family Care Consulting - provides financial management organization such as organizing and paying bills, and billing resolution.