

Get Your Ducks in a Row!

Are you confident in the planning you've done for the future? Are you thinking about things like: "Is all my paperwork in order in case something happens to me"; "I want to stay in my home forever"; "I am thinking of downsizing but do not know where to start"; "What can I do proactively so I can financially afford to do the things I want to do"? Join us for an informational presentation, provided by a panel of professionals who assist people plan and prepare for their future. They will each provide useful information and will take questions.

*This workshop is open to individuals, couples, family members & caregivers
RSVP is recommended by calling Senior & Social Services at 860.693.5811*

Date: Thursday, May 15, 2014
(rescheduled from 02/18/14)

Time: 6:30PM

Place: Canton Community Center
40 Dyer Avenue, Canton

Panel

Attorney Neil Kraner – Practicing Estate Planning, Elder Law for 20 years in the Farmington Valley.

Sandee Fleet – Representing the services provided by the Farmington Valley Visiting Nurse Association.

Regina Sanchez, - Professional Organizer providing Organizational Tips for Rightsizing your home as well as a brief discussion on "Leaving a Shade Tree or Empty Dish!"

Nicole Paquette (CFSP, CPC Licensed Funeral Director, Embalmer and Certified Preplanning Consultant with Carmon Community Funeral Homes) - explanation of the benefits of planning for your funeral or cremation, the three different types of cremation services and how to shelter assets in prepaid funeral contracts for Medicaid/Title 19 purposes.

Phil Rischall, Family Care Consulting - provides financial management organization such as organizing and paying bills, and billing resolution.

Sharon Gauthier, RN/MSN, iRNPA, Patient Advocate for You, LLC. -A geriatric care manager experienced in guiding you through the healthcare system and medical management.